

Children's Mental Health Initiative (CMHI) National Evaluation Web Event Training Series

The Importance of Family Involvement in Evaluation

Wednesday, October 26, 2016 | 1 – 2:30 pm EST

REGISTER NOW <http://goo.gl/CcpPaE>

This Web Event is the first in a series on family and youth involvement in evaluation and will focus on the importance and value of engaging families in evaluation efforts related to system of care expansion. It will explore the implementation of family-driven practice in evaluation and is designed for individuals fulfilling multiple roles in system of care expansion grant sites, including family-run organizations, family leaders, evaluators, directors and managers, and other team members. Presenters will:

- Explore the value added through the participation of families in evaluation efforts
- Discuss the enhanced evaluation outcomes that result with the inclusion of family voice in evaluation
- Provide an overview of strategies for incorporating family voice throughout the evaluation process
- Highlight a system of care grant site using innovative approaches to engage families in evaluation through a panel presentation

Presenters:

Lynda Gargan, PhD
Executive Director, National Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health

Ana Maria Brannan, PhD
Associate Professor, Indiana University
Principal Investigator, National System of Care (SOC) Expansion Evaluation

Joy S. Kaufman, PhD
Susan Graham, MSW
Tim Marshall, MSW
Jeana Bracey, PhD
Connecticut System of Care Grantee

Moderator:

Abram Rosenblatt, PhD
Project Director
CMHI National Evaluation
Westat