Next Steps!

Name of Practice: ________________________________________

Now we need for you to make a commitment! Your participation in this project is crucial if we are going to sort out how a South Carolina Learning Collaborative will operate most efficiently. You are very busy people, and this is a busy time of year. But we need for you to start!

What ideas do you have as a “first project”?

____________________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________________

Outline very briefly a proposed PDSA cycle that you think you might like to try:

Plan:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Do:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Study:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

Act:
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________

When do you think you will have your first quality huddle? Get out your calendars and pick a date.
____________________________________________________________________________________

We recommend that you pick a time for the quality team to meet for just 20 minutes and discuss progress weekly. Please remember to record PDSA cycles and work done or contemplated on the Blog.

When should we contact you to see how things are going? ________________________________

Who should we contact? ______________________________________________________________